

Freddie Mac Releases Refinance Transition Report

January 23, 2025

Today, Freddie Mac has published a quarterly refinance transition report that provides information on the mortgage product volume transitions between “old” Freddie Mac-owned mortgages that paid off via the delivery of “new” refinance mortgages on the same properties funded by Freddie Mac in the reporting period. The initial publication of the report will contain data on refinance mortgages originated between Q1 2020 and Q4 2024 and the report will be updated on a quarterly basis going forward to reflect refinance mortgages originated in the quarter. The report will be published on the Freddie Mac MBS website on the tenth business day in the month immediately following a quarter end.
